OFFICIAL

Second submission of correspondence apparently lost by the office

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Sir,

On October 21, 2003, a paper was sent to applicant concerning the above identified application. A response to that paper was submitted to the office on November 20, 2003.

Repeated checks of the PAIR system failed to show entry of the response. Applicant therefore believes that the office lost the response papers.

Applicant therefore submits hereby a copy of the submitted response, together with a copy of the postcard mailed to the office in accordance with MPEP 503, showing the reception by the office on the date shown. Applicant very respectfully requests that the papers will be entered into the file and that the office will act thereupon. If the original response submitted to the office has not been lost by the office, or if the original papers are found at a later date, applicant requests that this submission will be disregarded.

If any person in the office has any questions regarding the prosecution of the application, or any other questions concerning this submission or the present application, please contact applicant's agent, Shalom Wertsberger, by telephone, at (207) 799-9733.

Respectfully submitted,

Shalom Wertsberger
